

A promotional collage for the TV show "Andor". The background features a large, industrial-looking structure with scaffolding and pipes. Superimposed on the image are several characters: a close-up of a man's face in the upper left; a man with a beard and a rugged jacket standing behind another character; a woman with long brown hair and braids looking over her shoulder; a man in a blue flight suit in the lower right; and a man with white hair and a brown coat in the lower center. The title "ANDOR" is overlaid in large, bold, white letters with a blue outline.
